Welcome to Nature's Treasures!

Thank you for considering a possible Co-Sponsored experience.

Nature's Treasures is aspiring to be known throughout the United States as the destination point for both metaphysical and geological enthusiasts alike. NT's vision is to be an internationally recognized center for healing, well-being, and wide-eyed wonder, all centered around the beauty and power of the gifts Mother Earth has created. Our 14,000 square foot campus includes a 7,000 square foot showroom filled with nature's treasures, from crystals, minerals, fossils and jewelry to home, office & outdoor décor. We also carry books, CDs, divination tools, Native American items, candles, incense, souvenirs, lapidary equipment & supplies, rough rock and a large variety of other assorted gifts.

Our Community Event Center is comprised of three spaces.

Auditorium (56' X 40') that seats 150. It comes equipped with padded folding chairs, tables, podium, wireless headset microphone/hand-held microphone, projector & screen, adjacent product display area & a serving buffet or additional product display.

Practitioner's Room (8' X 11') This room is adjacent to the Auditorium and is perfect for readings, massages and other energetic modalities. It also serves as a dressing room for Presenters. It comes equipped with a small table, seating, far infrared sauna, choice of direct or indirect lighting (no windows).

Studio Space (58' X 21'+ side area) that seats approximately 40-50. The Studio is next door to the Auditorium, but is not connected internally to it. It has two private breakout rooms off of the main room and a single unisex bathroom.

Our staff is here to help you build a quality, customized event, 7 days a week.
